SUNUTE FITNESS

Learning the ropes

By Divine Windy Boy
THE SOUTHERN UTE DRUM

Southern Ute tribal member, Jakob Box is the new personal trainer intern at SunUte Community Center. During his internship, Box will fulfill personal training appointments and fitness assessments as well as a number of secondary responsibilities. Box has been training at Sun-Ute since Tuesday, Aug. 23 and will be interning for roughly three months from that date. Box will also be heading the “Lunch Walking Club” program, which is set to begin on Tuesday, Sept. 20.

Box will be learning what it is like to work in a dynamic position as well as to work as a member of a highly functioning and productive team. While a trainer’s primary responsibility is to complete personal training

Director Abel Velasquez, he says working alongside Box has been great. “Working with Jakob, so far, has been amazing and it is a joy to have him as part of our team, he is a self-driven, highly motivated person with a very open and friendly personality,” Velasquez said. “With the traits that Jakob possesses I can see him being very successful in his future, regardless of what he decides to do. I am excited to see what Jakob does over the next couple of months with us.”

Having obtained his personal training certification through the National Academy of Sports Medicine, Box has been able to begin personal training with clients at the SunUte Community Center as well as assist with the “Ute Elders and Their Friends” workout classes. Upon absence of another trainer, Box had the opportunity to lead a “Ute Elders and Their Friends” workout class.

“It was in the moment Abel [asked] ‘you’ve sat in on a class, would you be able to instruct it?’ and I was like yeah, they didn’t leave any plans, so I had to come up with the entire plan,” Box said. “I was really happy with the end of it – that they were all good, still standing and happy.” After the experience, Box shared that the elders enjoyed the challenge that he had provided in teaching them new material.

SunUte Director Robin Duffy-Wirth is happy to have Box working as a new trainer and emphasized that she is excited to see what he accomplishes during his internship. “To have a young tribal member come back and want to be here and learn from someone like Abel, it is fantastic,” Duffy-Wirth said. “I’m hoping for him that he gets people that come and work-out with him – he is a great trainer; he’s had years of working on his own body and he knows what to do and if he gets lost or has a question, he has so many people he can ask.”

Box hopes to delve into injury rehabilitation training in the future and is eager to learn all he can from his peers at SunUte. By the end of his internship, Box will be able to work with a wide variety of clients and will be able to work with anyone comfortably and successfully, regardless of training age or physical limitations.

“Injury rehabilitation training is where I’m going to have some studying to do and a little bit more training for myself, it’s always just been muscle growth and development,” Box said. “It’s a challenge that I’m ready to accept and learn more on because I know a lot of this community has injuries and they feel that the trainers here can help out a lot, I really want to perform that for them, make sure that they can come here and know that I will do a good job with that.”

For more information regarding personal training at SunUte Community Center or to schedule a personal training appointment, contact a trainer at 970-563-0214.

In the tradition of the Southern Ute Tribal Fair, members of the Southern Ute Tribe, Royalty Committee, family, and community welcomed the newest members of the Southern Ute Royalty for the 2022-23 season on Saturday, Aug. 27 at the Multi-Purpose Facility. This is the first royalty pageant and crowning to occur since the 2019-21 season. Ten contestants showcased their knowledge of the Southern Ute Tribe, Ute language, dance, and cultural skills in front of a panel of judges in hopes to be crowned. A formal introduction and talent portion allowed for all contestants to display why they could be the best fit to represent the Southern Ute Tribe with a crowning to follow later in the evening. The pageant included a keynote from former royalty member, Marcy Ekiko who discussed her time as royalty and the impact it has had in her life. A prayer was given by Matthew Box. Royalty from the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and Jicarilla Apache Nation were present in support of contestants and to welcome the newly crowned Royalty.

Royalty Committee members and tribal elders, Jennifer Goodtracks and Corliss Taylor await the results for the newest members of royalty.

courtesy All Recipes

Zucchini Shrimp Boats

- 4 zucchinis, cut in half lengthwise
- 1 tablespoon oil (olive, canola, etc.)
- 2 Tablespoons butter, divided
- 12oz large raw shrimp; peeled, deveined, tails removed (thaw if frozen)
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 2 plum tomatoes, diced
- 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning
- Salt and pepper to taste
- ½ cup panko breadcrumbs
- ½ cup grated parmesan
- 1 tablespoon fresh chopped parsley

Directions

For the zucchini boats

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
2. Scoop out flesh of the zucchini halves (leave zucchini border about ¼” thick).
3. Chop the scooped-out flesh and place in a bowl, set aside.
4. Place zucchini halves in a baking dish, sprinkle with olive oil, salt and pepper.
5. Bake until tender, about 15-20 minutes, remove from oven and set aside.

For the shrimp filling

1. Melt 1 tablespoon butter in a large skillet over medium heat, add shrimp, Italian seasoning, salt and pepper to taste.
2. Cook until shrimp is pink, about 3-4 minutes, remove from skillet and chop into bite sized pieces, set aside.
3. In same skillet, heat 1 tablespoon butter.
4. Add zucchini flesh, tomatoes, and garlic. Cook for about 2-3 minutes. Turn off heat.
5. Add shrimp to zucchini mixture and stir to combine.
6. Place mixture evenly into baked zucchini boats.
7. In a small bowl, mix panko crumbs and parmesan, sprinkle evenly over zucchini/shrimp boats.
8. Place zucchini/shrimp boats back in oven and heat for an additional 10-15 minutes or until golden and heated through.
9. Garnish with fresh parsley. Serve and enjoy!

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

BEE HEARD: Grief and addiction

By James Hayes, CADC-2, ICADC
SOUTHERN UTE HEALTH CENTER

Death and loss are components of life that every person will deal with at some point in their lives. The term grief is defined as “the response to loss” of “deep sorrow, especially that caused by someone’s death” (Oxford Language, 2022).

What many don’t realize is that people also grieve when they give up drugs, alcohol, and nicotine. In some ways it is like the end of a relationship or marriage. Symptoms of this grief are like what is called “post-acute withdrawal symptoms,” better known as “PAWS.” PAWS represents the psychological withdrawal that comes on after physical withdrawal ends, such as shaking and vomiting.

Like PAWS, symptoms of grief include depression and anger. The pioneer of the study of grief and loss, Elizabeth Kubler Ross, identified that there are five stages of grief: denial, anger, bargaining, depression, acceptance (Stanaway, 2020). With addiction, denial tends to be a tool most people will use; statements like “I don’t have a problem” or “I will just have one drink.” Grief and denial within addiction can look more like “I only had a problem with meth, I did not have a problem with alcohol.”

Many addicts become angry when faced with sobriety. Getting sober can be scary, and anger is born out of fear. Bargaining can follow, making statements to themselves like “I will stop for two weeks, then I will be ok.” Depression may follow, which is why it is vital in early recovery to find something to fill that void those drugs and alcohol once filled. Twelve Step meetings and individual or group counseling are great ways to start. Spiritual practices and physical exercise are two wonderful ways to get the brain to fire in a natural way instead of using substances. The final stage is acceptance. In order to move forward, one must accept that this is the way things are now. Grieving is a process, and acceptance does come in time. Another author does state that there is a sixth stage of grief, and that stage is meaning. Understanding the meaning behind life events also comes in time but cannot come before one has accepted what has happened and where they are at currently.

For anyone who is struggling with substance abuse, grief and loss, or other mental health issues, there is help. Southern Ute Behavioral Health has services that include psychotherapy, trauma therapy, family therapy, group therapy, and substance abuse counseling. We also have Medication Assisted Treatment to help treat opioid use and alcohol use disorders. Please reach out if you or a loved one is struggling by calling 970-563-5700.

SEPTEMBER IS SUICIDE PREVENTION MONTH

Available right now in Indian Country “988” and the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline

Why do we need 988?
Suicide is the second leading cause of death for Native youth ages 10-24. Native communities experience the highest rates of suicide amongst all racial and ethnic groups in the United States, and suicide rates among American Indian and Alaska Native communities rose by 118% between 1999 and 2017.

Suicide is PREVENTABLE. 988 is one step in the direction of saving lives. This early intervention can reduce the burden on 911 and hospital services. 988 will move mental health and substance use services out of the shadows and into the mainstream; it will send a message that healing and getting help are normal and important parts of life.

What is 988?

988 is a direct three-digit line to trained National Suicide Prevention Lifeline crisis counselors. With an easy to remember 3-digit number, the Lifeline hopes to reach many more people in emotional and substance use crisis. This service is provide FREE of charge to the caller. Any person of any age can call or text 988; services are available 24/7, year-round. There is a text option, translation services for non-English speakers, accessible options for people who are deaf or heard of hearing, and services for minors.

When you’ve got a police, fire, or rescue emergency, you call 911.

WHEN YOU HAVE A MENTAL HEALTH EMERGENCY, YOU CAN CALL/TEXT 988.

Insect bites and stings

By Sandra Beirne, MD
SOUTHERN UTE HEALTH CENTER

This time of year always seems particularly full of insects. I imagine the tiny creatures sensing that cooler weather is on the horizon and furiously scrambling to maximize their short lives. As we humans also sense cooler weather coming and seek to maximize our time outside, sometimes we collide and are left with an insect bite. Fortunately, most insect bites or stings in our area are nothing more than an irritation for a few days, but even with mosquito bites there are situations where it can be painful or even dangerous.

Mosquito bites are the most common insect bites and are typically a 2–3-day itchy frustration. In some people, most commonly kids, a larger reaction occurs with impressive swelling, redness and pain around the bite site that can last for days. Known as “skeeter fever” because it can also be accompanied by a low-grade fever. It usually resolves with age and can be treated preventatively with antihistamines like loratadine or cetirizine during the mosquito months, and ibuprofen and ice packs if bites occur. Sometimes it can be difficult to tell if a child has a bacterial skin infection or a skeeter fever reaction, so don’t hesitate to bring them in to be seen if you have any question about it.

Jeremy Wade Shockley/SU Drum

Rarely, mosquito bites can be dangerous if the mosquito is carrying the West Nile virus and they transmit it to a human in their bite – particularly to an older adult or someone with a chronic illness. In 2022, there have been 39 cases of West Nile virus in Colorado and three deaths. So far this year there have been no human cases or mosquitos that tested positive for the virus in Southwest Colorado, but in the past five years there have been cases in all three nearby Colorado counties: Montezuma, Archuleta, and La Plata. There is no treatment once a person gets the virus, so though it is uncommon and currently not detected in our local region, mosquito bites can be dangerous and preventing bites through clothing and repellent is our only prevention strategy.

Bees, wasps, yellow jackets, and hornets all have the potential to sting humans. For most stings, the stinger will develop a mildly painful area with redness that gets better after a few hours and can be treated with an ice pack. About 10% of people will get a “large, local reaction”: a much larger, much redder, much more painful area around the sting that gets bigger for a couple of days and takes 5-10 days to completely resolve. This can be treated with prescription medications to ease the intense itch and pain. In a small percentage of people, a sting from one of these insects causes anaphylaxis - a severe allergic reaction that can be fatal. It necessitates rapid treatment with epinephrine into a muscle, usually the outside thigh and a trip to an emergency room.

I hope you and your families enjoy the last weeks of summer bite and sting free!

You can make an appointment for your child to be seen at the Southern Ute Health Clinic for insect bite or sting concerns or anything else by calling 970-563-4581.

Positive Indian Parenting (PIP) has been used for over 35 years and remains popular today because the teachings are timeless. Historically, we had rich teachings that helped children grow up safe with strong families. Colonization threatened those teachings—our Native families were being separated and traditional practices were at risk of being lost. PIP was developed in the 1980s to fill this void.

Positive Indian Parenting was designed to help parents and families remember our teachings and practice them. In part one of each session we will discuss examples of traditional practices and teachings from several different tribes. Instructors also share teachings from local areas and communities. Part two of each session discusses how to apply those teachings and values today.

Honoring our Tradition by Honoring our Children

This class is free of charge and consists of 8 sessions that may last up to three hours. We ask that you commit your-self to completing each session. You will need the Microsoft Teams App and access to a video camera and speaker (smart phone or laptop computer will work) in an area free from distraction. So. Ute Indian Montessori
Academy

The school year has begun and SUIMA students are glad to be back.

We have our outdoor environments set up, the gardens are weeded, and the older students are already settling into their lessons; the meals from the school kitchen have been wonderful.

We have celebrated birthdays, a staff wedding, and are creating projects for the upcoming 100th annual Southern Ute Tribal Fair.

All-in-all, it has been a good first week of school.

School Board and Parent Advisory Group

Our school board is meeting the first Tuesday of the month. Currently, they are having work sessions only and will be opening meetings to the public in the future.

Our PAG meetings will be the third Tuesday of the month. More information will be coming out soon. Family Nights have not yet been scheduled.

Jessie Sanchez-Special Education Specialist –970-563-2707, jsanchez@southernute-nsn.gov
Hello all, my name is Jessie and I have been in Education for 16 years. I have a bachelor's degree from Fort Lewis college in Elementary Education and a master's degree from Adams State University in Special Education. I taught 1st-4th grade in the public school and Special Education k-12. This is my second year at SUIMA. I love to work with students in any area of their education. My role here at SUIMA is the coordination of special education needs for students and families. I have 4 boys who went through SUIMA and love what and how they were taught. My oldest son Rowdy has two girls who attend Bayfield Elementary. Dalton is chasing his dreams and can be seen on the Cowboy channel riding bulls for the PRCA. RJ is a welder who lives where work takes him, currently in Wyoming. Dustin is a senior at Southwest Oklahoma University studying Natural Resources. He can also be seen on the Cowboy channel riding bulls for the PRCA or college rodeo.

Rachel Akey - Speech-Language Pathologist –970-563-2714, rakey@southernute-nsn.gov
Hi everyone! My name is Rachel Akey and I am a Speech Language Pathologist (SLP) at SUIMA! I have worked in schools for 5 years and I have worked at SUIMA for the past 2 years as an SLP. SLPs can support the school by offering prevention, assessment, and treatment of communication and swallowing needs. I am originally from Arvada, CO and I currently live in Durango with my husband. In my free time I like to travel, go on walks, spend time with family, and paint.

Meg Dunn - Counselor – 970-563-2701, mdunn@southernute-nsn.gov
Maykh! My name is Meg Dunn and I am the Ed. Counselor here at SUIMA. I am very happy to be here and serve the students and families through Social Emotional learning and individual counseling. My given Ute name is Tavapaa Mamachi which means Sun-Water Woman, a name that reflects my love of all things water and enjoying that element especially on sunny days. When I am not working here at school you will find me swimming, kayaking and paddle boarding in lakes, rivers and oceans and in the winter months skating, skiing and snowshoeing with my dog Mocha (always) and often with my husband and two teenage children. I love living in the San Juan mountains and nature is my therapy. I enjoy sharing the support nature offers with the students as well as creating healthy social and emotional awareness and habits.

Debra Lamoreaux - Reading Specialist – 970-563-2705, dlamoreaux@southernute-nsn.gov
Hi! My name is Debbie Lamoreaux and I am one of the reading specialists at SUIMA. I have been teaching for 34 years. I taught for a year in Okinawa, Japan and for 11 years in Albuquerque prior to moving to Durango. I have been at SUIMA since the doors opened in 2000. I taught for 18 years in the LE 2 classroom and have been a reading specialist for the last 4 years. I work with K-6th grade students and host the Scholastic Book Fair each year. I live in Durango with my husband and Chihuahua named Izzy. I have a daughter and son-in-law who live in Denver and a son who lives in Bozeman, Montana. In my free time I like to read, listen to books while walking and spend time with my family.

Lori Smith - Reading Specialist – 970-563-0253 Ext. 2715, lsmith@southernute-nsn.gov
Hi, My name is Lori Smith and I am a Reading Specialist here at SUIMA. I work with students who need support with their reading skills. I love to read, hike, travel and spend time with my family. This is my 3rd year at the school, and I am so happy to be a part of this amazing community of learners! I can support all families with any reading questions or resources you may need, don't hesitate to reach out to me at 970-563-0253 Ext. 2715 or lsmith@southernute-nsn.gov

Andrea Hudspeth - Special Needs Aide – 970-563-2700, ahudspeth@southernute-nsn.gov
Hello everyone, I am super excited to start the new year at the beginning and I want to tell you a little about myself. I am a mother of three boys that go to the Bayfield school district. I enjoy gardening, all outdoor activities as well as sports. I may not be as fast and quick, but I believe it always is a great mental break for myself. If you see me around just know I will always say hello and help if I can.

Veterans roll into Ignacio

Per tradition — members of the Southern Ute Veterans Association, Tribal Council and riders from the Durango Colorado Veterans Poker Run gather for a formal photograph in Southern Ute Veterans Memorial Park to commemorate the annual ride across Southwest Colorado.

Longtime friends, Shannon Brown and Linda Baker share a laugh together at the Southern Ute Veterans Memorial Park.

The 10th anniversary Durango Colorado Veterans Poker Run returned to the Southern Ute Reservation Friday, Sept. 2, where they were welcomed by the Southern Ute Veterans Association and tribal dignitaries for the second year in a row. The reception took place in the Southern Ute Veterans Memorial Park and featured live music, guest speakers, and plenty of giveaways. This year's poker run event had over 120 registered riders and raised close to $6K in funding; the majority goes to funding the Veterans Relief Committee.

1986 Intertribal: On Sunday afternoon, Tribal Fair Powwow in the Sky Ute Downs indoor arena with over 125 dancers in Grand Entry.

1988 Special: Raymond and Edna Frost participates in a special with their children Heather and Jeanette Frost at the 1988 Southern Ute Tribal Fair Powwow.

Being a participant in powwow isn't an inconvenience to our daily routine, it is an upgrade to our Native lifestyle. Being a dancer or singer means that on any given weekend, a person can meet up with people who identify with their passion, discipline, and culture. Powwow is like rodeo in that there are structured divisions that a person chooses. Someone could decide to be a grass dancer, a jingle dress dancer, a fancy dancer, etc. Each of these styles requires practice, repetition, and determination in order to excel. Dancing is physical and some may even compare it to sports. The beauty of dancing is that you can participate for as many years as you wish. No coach can cut you from the team and there is always a powwow happening on any given weekend.

Dancing and singing are ways to express yourself and to inspire others. It is also a long road of learning. Learning to maintain and build an outfit or drum requires care and compassion. Traveling to far off places and representing your tribe becomes an honor that we dancers and singers do not take lightly. This issue of the Southern Ute Drum illustrates a small portion of the pride and privilege of being a part of the powwow circle. Please join us at the 62nd Annual Southern Ute Tribal Fair Powwow. See the beauty and feel the pride. There's something about it.

BOBCATS VOLLEYBALL

Service runs help IHS save home opener

'Cats stop improved Norwood in three

By Joel Priest
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM

If anything could make a 5:30 a.m. bus-ride roll call bearable for a high-school volleyball player, it would have to be a victory – even of the predominantly nerve-wracking, rally-driven sort – secured at roughly 8 p.m. the previous night. Making their IHS Gymnasium debut Thursday, September 1, that's exactly what Ignacio's Volleycats earned, with an early Friday departure for Kremmling and the two-day West Grand Invitational but a short night's snooze away.

Facing a much-improved Norwood squad, having recently notched their first win in 2022 after four previous tries, IHS needed to dig deep to avoid disaster. But behind clutch serving, particularly from junior Kacey Brown early and sophomore Ollyvia Howe late, the home side swiped the 2A/1A San Juan Basin League match 26-24, 25-13, 25-22.

"I think what was most important," said head coach Shasta Pontine, "was that they learned how to play from behind."

"We started off slow," senior setter Laci Brunson said. "I mean, when you're in a slow game it's hard to step up and play at your full potential, but I think we all stepped up to finish the game in three – which was really important."

Not 48 hours removed from a five-game league loss at 2A-level rival Mancos, Ignacio (1-3, 1-1 2A/1A SJBL) traded relatively evenly early on with new-this-year-but-been-there-before NHS skipper Ramona Rummel's Lady Mavericks, who suddenly took command in Game 1 with a six-point run giving them a 14-10 lead.

Things only got better for the guests, who inexplicably found themselves sitting on game point, 24-17 when IHS senior Trinity Strohl served long. NHS sophomore Grace Harris then net-

BOBCATS CROSS-COUNTRY

SJBL harriers have hard go at Stampede

IHS boys 18th in 2A-only, 19th in 2A/3A

By Joel Priest
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM

Competing within a field numbering almost as many entrants as Ignacio High School has students, senior Eppie Quintana was far and away the Bobcats' top runner Friday afternoon, September 2, at the 12th Annual Cheyenne Mountain Stampede.

Clocking 20 minutes, 14.8 seconds on the newly-altered Norris-Penrose Event Center course in Colorado Springs, Quintana placed a respectable 45th out of 222 finishers – entries were unlimited – and helped IHS place 19th out of 22 crews in the Class 2A/3A Boys' race. Under score-5 methodology, Ignacio posted an adjusted total of 520 points, bettering 2A Byers (549), 3A Elizabeth (557) and 3A Colorado Springs James Irwin Charter (581).

"We faced some of the state's best high-school cross-country runners," head coach Karri McCarter said via text message, "in heat that ranged from 96 to 98 degrees depending on where you stood on the course!"

2A Golden View Classical Academy grabbed the team title via a winning-low 118 points. 2A Colorado Springs Christian was right behind with 129 and 2A Rocky Ford was a tight third with 131. But with 2A-level schools reportedly filtered into their own score-4 subcategory the results were much different, starting at the top.

Sixth place in the combined 2A/3A table due to a low-placing No. 5, Colorado Springs St. Mary's (which had amassed 157 points) suddenly shot up to No. 1 amongst 2A squads once said individual's points were subtracted – giving the Pirates a revised score of just 39.

CSCS – which had a No. 5 lagging far behind GVC's fifth, hurting them in a score-5 scenario – remained in second place with a revised score-4 tally of 48 points, but Golden View Classical slipped to fourth with 75, bypassed by Wiggins (71; fifth-place 174 in score-5) while bumping RFHS (80) down to fifth. Out of 18 2A teams entered, IHS ended up an unlucky 18th in the revised score-4 system – their adjusted 232 points barely bettered by Byers' 231.

Ignacio's No. 2 finisher was freshman Dillon Brann, 138th overall in 23:22.4, or exactly one second faster than fellow San Juan Basin Leaguer Braxton Dennison of Mancos. IHS junior Corey Gomez crossed the finish line 159th in 24:31.1, freshman Trace Crane ended up 164th in 24:56.4, and senior Aven Bourriague placed 171st in an even 25:35.

"Eppie ... and Corey ... ran ... to faster paces than they ran last year at the same race," noted McCarter. "We'll take that!"

"I'm hugely proud of the hard work and dedication from these young student-athletes," she declared. "It just gets better from here. This team and their entire pit crew of parents, boosters and administrators have rallied, and this season is sure to be one of our best."

The only fellow breaking 17 minutes, 2A Colorado Springs Thomas MacLaren Charter senior Jay Wood won in 16:53.8.

In the 2A/3A girls' race, first place went to 3A Woodland Park senior Emma Graber, who clocked 21:58.70. The only Lady 'Cat competing, Ignacio junior Lauren deKay placed 78th (out of 131) in 29:53.8.

"Can't seem to escape the injury plague," McCarter said. "Zoey Ashley opened the season as a team of one – this young lady has been shedding minutes off her practice runs! We've been super excited to see her run this year! But in the Cleveland opener (the August 27th V. Sue Cleveland Storm Invitational in Rio Rancho, N.M.) she suffered a significant injury that may keep her out the whole season. Her

TRIBAL OBITUARIES

ROCK – Donald William “Billy” Rock was born on March 27, 1933 at Taylor Hospital in Ignacio Colorado. Donald passed away on Aug. 27, 2022 surrounded by family. He attended the Ute Vocational school in Ignacio. He then enlisted in the US Army as a medic and was stationed in France. Donald worked for the Southern Ute Tribal Maintenance for 30 years. He also worked part time as a firefighter. He enjoyed working on the family ranch.

Donald is preceded in death by his wife of 65 years, Priscilla Flores Rock, mother and father Alice Poor Washington Rock and Bryan Rock Sr. Sisters Mercedes Baker, Grace Rock, Annette Sage, Rose Rock and brother Bryan Rock Jr. His grandchildren Iris Rock, Darwin Rock, Dionna Rock and Samantha Rock.

Special thank you to his special angels, Manygoats, Papitas, Felicia and Charlie Brown.

Services were held at the Southern Ute Memorial Chapel in Ignacio, Colo. on Sept. 1, 2022.

Christina Jean Herrera was born on June 13, 2002. She was born in Durango, Colorado to Daphnee Washington and the late Carlos Chanio Herrera, Sr. On September 2, 2022, she made her journey to the Creator.

Christina was an enrolled member of the Southern Ute Tribe. She participated in cultural activities such as Bear Dance, Southern Ute Royalty, bead working, sewing both Ribbon Skirts and Dresses, even making her own moccasins. She was in the process of learning her Ute language.

Before graduating from Ignacio High School in 2020, Christina was a representative of the Sunshine Cloud Smith Youth Advisory Council. Christina also played high school volleyball and was a member of the Four Corners Volleyball Club.

Some of the things Christina enjoyed the most was pampering her sidekicks, Toby and Draco, which other people would say are just dogs. She also loved going for rides in her black Subaru with the big pink wolf sticker on the back window surrounded by swords that was hard to miss. Let’s not forget how much Christina loved baking, her absolute favorite thing to bake was cupcakes.

She listened to a variety of music from the King of Rock’s sweet voice to “For Whom the Bell Tolls” by Metallica, and the list goes on and on.

Forget Christmas, Christina’s favorite time of the year was Bear Dance. You could catch her most of the time decked out in her Bear Dance attire with a big lemonade in one hand and a fry bread burger in the other.

A lot of us remember those big dimples and that beautiful smile. We also remember she was big hearted and sensitive to other people’s feelings. And let’s not forget Christina’s jokes that would have you gasping for air and the pranks that family members and friends had to endure in her presence. I’m sure we all remember that unique, infectious laugh that started from a subtle giggle and quickly turned into a high pitch scream and ended in silent shaking.

Christina is survived by her mother, Daphnee Washington; sister, Angela Herrera; brother, Carlos Herrera, Jr.; sister, Kaye Washington; grandparents, John and Daleen Washington; countless aunts, uncles, and cousins; and of course, her sidekicks, Toby and Draco.

EXPRESS YOUR OPINIONS

GOOD SAMARITAN

I would like to commend Tony Rohde on his quick response to a recent office incident. During office hours, Tony heard coughing sounds outside his office and upon investigating saw a SECMG employee choking. Tony asked if he could assist and then performed abdominal thrusts, helping to dislodge the blockage and allowing the employee to breath normally.

Thank you, Tony, for recognizing this serious health situation and taking immediate action. The incident highlights the importance of CPR/First Aid training in which relatively simple actions can prevent a more serious outcome. It also highlights that a serious situation can occur at any time or place, and if properly trained in CPR/First Aid, we can provide critical assistance.

THANK YOU FROM MISS SOUTHERN UTE!

Maykh puan!
Nunay niya Grace Lydia Gonzales, I am the 2022-2023, Miss Southern Ute. My parents are Amy Barry and Mario Gonzales. My maternal grandparents are Marjorie and the late Ben Barry. My paternal grandparents are Joe and Debbie Gonzales. I have three brothers, Tyler, Andrew, and Cristovan.

I would like to take the time to thank the Southern Ute Royalty Pageant participants, judges and Committee for a wonderful cultural event. It was an honor to share talent, dance, and a meal with tribal leadership and membership on such a special day.

Thank you to Elise Redd and her team for a wonderful meal. I would also like to thank the Blackbird family for always encouraging me to stay involved in our culture, school, and tribal community with positive thoughts and actions.

Thank you to our Great Grandmother Tami Weage, for always having the willingness and countless hours to create such beautiful sewing creations for our families. To my Grandma Marge, thank you for always taking me to powwows, Bear Dance, and our cultural events to participate, I have learned so much and want to learn more. Gracias to my Gonzales family for always showing up to support me in school, sporting, and cultural events, for all of the wonderful cooking you do for our tribal community.

Thank you to the tribal membership, for without all of us, we would not have opportunities to serve as ambassadors of our Tribe.

I look forward to seeing you all during my 2022-2023 reign as Miss Southern Ute. I hope you all enjoy our 100th Annual Southern Ute Fair and Powwow and have safe travels home. I look forward to seeing you all during the fair weekend!

Toghoyaqh,
Grace Lydia Gonzales

Professional Highway Maintainer Apprenticeship Available in Durango area

The Colorado Department of Transportation is encouraging people who are interested in a public safety career to apply for a position through a new maintenance apprenticeship program. Position is a two-year paid mentorship in Bayfield and includes both hands-on and classroom training. An apprentice will earn their Commercial Driver's License and qualify as a Highway Maintenance Specialist. Starting pay is $16 per hour and includes full benefits worth nearly $16,700 per year, 11 paid holidays, paid leave, and a retirement package. Candidate must be at least 18 years old and have a valid driver's license. Apprentice will train and specialize in either maintenance, tunnel operations or traffic and safety. Position is based at 650 U.S.160B, Bayfield, CO 81121. To view the full announcement and submit an application, go to: <http://careers.codot.gov> and type "apprentice" in the search bar. "We've designed this program so that it not only provides the necessary hands-on training and experience for those who would like to pursue a long-term career in public service, but also build up their qualifications for professional advancement," said CDOT's Director of Maintenance and Operations John Lorme. "And along with earning while you're learning, an apprentice eventually will provide CDOT with a highly skilled employee who's serving the traveling public." Once an apprentice successfully completes one year of the program and receives a CDL license, they will be eligible for a pay increase. At the end of two years, a successful apprentice may qualify for a permanent, fully operational Highway Maintenance Specialist position, which provides another pay increase upon promotion. Additional opportunities for career advancement in both leadership and technical tracks throughout the state should be anticipated. Information on benefits is available: <https://dhr.colorado.gov/state-employees/state-of-colorado-employee-benefits>. In June, Gov. Polis signed an Executive Order to increase the number of apprentices in state agencies and departments, allowing individuals to obtain paid work experience, classroom instruction, and a nationally recognized, portable credential.

The Southern Ute Indian Tribe Environmental Programs Division is now accepting applications for the 2023 Agricultural Cost-Share Program (CSP).

The purpose of the CSP is to work cooperatively with landowners to implement Best Management Practices (BMPs) on lands within the Reservation. BMPs help reduce the amount of sediment and nutrients being added to our waterways and improve water quality and wildlife habitat. BMPs may include:

- Replacing flood irrigation with gated pipe or sprinklers
- Off-source watering developments
- Conservation plowing
- Riparian fencing
- Re-vegetation

The program pays 95% of the cost of BMPs utilized with the participant providing the remaining 5%. Due to limited funding not all applicants will be chosen. Projects are judged based upon the potential to reduce agriculture related pollution and to improve water quality.

FLY FISHING

There’s more to fly fishing than catching

By Don Oliver
SPECIAL TO THE DRUM

“Hello.”
“What do you think?”
“Should we still go?”
“I’ve looked at the radar map and the rain stops when we turn south at Chimney Rock. It will be cloudy, and the water will be way-off color, but I don’t think it will rain on us. Let’s give it a shot. Don’t forget your waders and rain jacket.”
“I’m already on the way over and forgot my waders.”
“Don’t worry, I know it’s hard to believe, but I have extra waders.”

Such was the conversation my Friday fishing partner, Kim, and I had last Friday. It was raining for the drive to the Piedra River on the Southern Ute Reservation. But my interpretation of the radar was correct, and my thoughts on muddy water were also correct. I was feeling pretty smug and believed I was on a roll and could figure out how to catch trout in these conditions. I guess two out of three isn’t too bad.
We booted and suited at Fossett Gulch #4, waded downstream, positioned ourselves at the bottom of a great looking riffle, and started to cast. I tied on my usual dry fly, while Kim went straight to a nymph setup. Neither worked. Kim changed flies, I added a dropper to my dry; nada. I moved further into the riffle, tied on the gaudiest Woolly Bugger I had, then let it drift downstream. Even though it was straight below me, given the water conditions, I would not call it “fishing the shuffle.” I did get a strike and missed it. Kim was now on her third change of flies. With this rate of success, we decided to drive to another location. We went north up the road to Fosset Gulch #3. The reason we chose this location is that there are multiple deep pools created by the Southern Ute Tribe placing large boulders in the bends of the river. Our theory was that fish would be holding in these deep pools since there was not any bug activity going on. It was a good theory.

Our theory was that fish would be holding in these deep pools since there was not any bug activity going on. It was a good theory.

I know many fly fishers, mostly new to the sport and maybe a few old curmudgeons, that would have looked at this day as a bust. In mine and Kim’s opinion, it was a great day on the water. I loved the day because I was forced to get out of my comfort zone and actually cast flies that sank. Kim remarked that her skill level at tying flies to her leader improved because she did it so often, looking for the just the right fly. As I was mumbling to myself about nothing biting, I found I was slowing down and working on better drifts. As I practiced mending, Kim practiced getting flies out of bushes and trees. This was a day of learning. It was also a great day to joke with my fishing partner, and her with me, about nothing in particular. Just being out was great. I think days similar to last Friday are a necessary part of fly fishing. Laughing at your casts, moving very slowly because you can’t see the bottom of the river, just sitting on a log and pretending you know which fly to pluck from your box when in reality you have no clue, adds to the great experience of fly fishing.
It is a skill that comes from spending many, many days fly fishing. If you haven’t yet developed the pure enjoyment skill, there is a way to get it. Go fly fishing more. It will work, I promise. It worked for me.

ted a serve herself, putting Brown at the service line. Sending over accurate delivery after accurate delivery, limiting Norwood’s offensive options, Brown’s work ultimately yielded two Howe put-aways and one from junior Solymar Cosio, and goaded NHS senior Grace Fournery into two unforced errors.
Rummel called a timeout with the Lady Mavs still up 24-23, but Brown responded by acing sophomore Kendra McCluer to complete the comeback. Cosio then smacked a shot through the visitors’ middle, and sophomore Amber Bockrath was unable to push a free ball back over the strings, giving Ignacio a 25-24 lead. Brown then polished off an eight-point stay on serve with a harsh ace of McCluer.
“Feels really good,” Brown said of the Volleys’ first win this fall. “I was just trying to do my job, get my serves in!”
Able to gain a 2-1 lead early in Game 2, IHS confidently gained a 2-0 lead in the match by never looking back. Consecutive Brunson aces of Bockrath helped Ignacio inflate the advantage to 14-9, and when Rummel used her second timeout of the game, she did so with NHS trailing 22-12 and Brown about to toe the service line.

Brown nevertheless fired an ace, Cosio followed with a kill off Harris, and IHS claimed the game when Norwood’s Dilyn Alexander spiked a shot long.
But 1A Norwood (1-5, 0-1 SJBL) wasn’t finished in the least. Racing out to a 5-2 lead after Alexander regrouped to immediately knock Brunson off serve with a scoring tip, the Lady Mavericks kept up their nothing-to-lose pressure and somehow widened the gap to 17-6. Back-to-back Marissa Olguin kills brought Ignacio back to 17-10, and Howe would step back to serve at 19-13. Recreating Brown’s stretch, Howe held serve for nine straight points as the ‘Cats clawed ahead to 22-19.
“We’d been struggling with our serving,” Brunson said, “so everybody stepping up tonight and getting good service runs will help them individually, but it’ll really help our team.”

Rummel took a timeout, and despite IHS subsequently surrendering two points via errors, NHS more or less ran out of time as Ignacio senior Harmony Reynolds wrote the match into history with a solid cross-court kill.
“The team’s been coming together,” said Brown, “and even with our first three losses ... each game we’re getting better.”
“It’s an awesome boost of confidence for us to have our first win,” Brunson stated. “Mancos was a big loss – that we could have won, but if we all come together and do what we need to do, we could maybe win one at West Grand.”
SEASON-TO-DATE
IHS’ win came after three outings’ worth of trying, starting with a season-opening 22-25, 12-25, 26-24, 15-25 loss Tuesday, August 23, at 3A Montezuma-Cortez. The ‘Cats then fell 25-17, 22-25, 20-25, 24-26 at non-league 2A Del Norte two nights later, before losing 15-25, 25-22, 25-20, 24-26, 10-15 on the 30th at MHS.

sister, Moriah, is also sidelined with a foot injury.”
“Lauren ... rolled her ankle in preseason and is still getting back into race shape on a sore ankle,” she continued. “However, she braved the heat ... and ran as a team of one to represent the Lady Bobcats.”
In the overall score-5 team standings, CSCS captured first with 57 points and 2A Fort Collins Heritage Christian Academy placed second with 75. Third went to 2A

Colorado Springs Banning Lewis Preparatory Academy, 111-114 over 3A Greeley University. In the revised score-4 format, Colorado Springs Christian’s 26 points still paced all 2A girls’ teams, with nearest contenders BLPA and HCA each scoring 38 and La Jara-based Centauri following with 75. Mancos sophomore Teagan Archer finished 11th, clocking 23:19.9 and helping MHS place ninth overall in the score-5 standings with 212 points. In 2A-only, the Lady Jays were seventh-best with a revised score of 109.

Senior Madilynn Ritter took 51st in 27:26.1, sophomore Sarah Knezek was 75th in 29:45.1 and junior Mandi Peacock took 77th in 29:47.6. Freshman Tatum Endres (31:22.1) finished 88th, freshman Maddie Swortwood-Green (32:15.0) was 93rd, and freshman Hope Manning (36:39.6) took 120th.
